

The Science of Music in Your Papers

Step One

Read: “Rats at a Rave”.

Step Two

Questions to answer with a partner:

- What can the readers say definitively after this experiment?
- What can they not say definitively?
- Key Question: What words do they use to show a definitive result versus a possible one—list all that you see and can think of?

Step Three

Create Master List of Hedge Words

Step Four

Your Work:

Look at your discussion section, use the master list to soften or strengthen any of your conclusions. If you have nothing written, then write now in word.
